TWIN FALLS, Ida., Nov. 19.—

The 16-year-old confessed slayer of little Glenda Joyce Brisbois was secretly arraigned by auto light in an open field, then jailed today at Twin Falls because authorities feared mob reprisals.

Swaggering high school junior Neal Butterfield confessed last night that he killed the 7-year-old Burley, Ida., first grader with a car jack and tossed her body into a canal near her home. He was quoted as saying he "just wanted to see someone die."

Fear Mob Action
Probate Judge Henry W. Tucker presided at the unique, open-air court session. He said it was unsafe to read charges against Butterfield in a courtroom because he feared he could not control angry crowds that might gather.

The Heyburn, Ida., youth waived a preliminary hearing on the first degree murder charge which means he will be bound over to the district court and probably tried next February.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—(INS)—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, called today for total war against the "sex-crazed fiends" responsible for the mounting wave of assaults on women and children.

Hoover, in an exclusive statement to International News Service, advanced a five-point program "of education and action" to cope with the sex criminal, who he said "has replaced the kidnaper as a threat to the peace of mind of the parents of America."

Declaring that the "steady rise" in vicious attacks on women and children must be stopped, Hoover said early identification of the potential sex criminal is of utmost importance. He said that the man with depraved tendencies must be acted against—either by medical (Continued on Page Two)

Sherman Will Take No Action

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Admiral Forrest P. Sherman refused today to grant Capt. John G. Crommelin's request for a court martial or to withdraw his reprimand of Crommelin.

Sherman, chief of naval operations, rebuffed Crommelin's demand of Friday by declaring the case is closed.

Crommelin, in a new blast at Pentagon policy, demanded that his record either be cleared or that he be court-martialed.

Sherman pointed out that when he rebuked Crommelin publicly, he gave him the opportunity to file a reply.

The navy chief said that reply has now been made, and "no further action is indicated."

Arms Embargo On Bulgaria And Albania

FLUSHING MEADOWS, N. Y., Nov. 19.—(INS)—The United Nations formally notified its members today that arms shipments to Albania and Bulgaria—branded as instigators of the Greek civil war—are forbidden.

The arms embargo was levied by the assembly last night to halt aid to Greek guerrillas. The vote was 50 to 6, with two abstentions. Yugoslavia joined the Soviet bloc in opposing the resolution originally sponsored by Australia, China, Britain and the United States.

The resolution also brands Romania as an instigator of the Greek civil war and provides for the continuation of the existing U. N. "watch dog" commission along the Greek frontier. It carries a warning that further aid to the Greek rebels "would seriously increase the danger to peace."

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Fred Stroble, 66-year-old confessed slayer who said he doesn't "deserve to live," was kept under close suicide watch today at Los Angeles county jail where he is shunned by fellow prisoners.

Stroble, a mild-mannered grandfather, confessed slaying 6-year-old Linda Joyce Glucoft last Monday. The child's body was found in a rubbish pile at the rear of his daughter's home.

Jail officials said they placed Stroble in a "high-powered" cell where he could be watched at all times.

District Attorney William A. Simpson stated that death in the gas chamber would be asked for the "nice old man" whom children loved because he "always gave us candy."

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—Some "Shanley-Land" rendezvous today hid the nation's favorite newweds, Vice President and Mrs. Barkley, from the applauding public which turned the couple's quiet wedding into a Roman holiday.

The 71-year-old "Veep" and his bride, their St. Louis marriage covered by press, radio and television, halted at revealing their honeymooning destination.

The nation's second highest executive officer, the only vice president to marry while in office, dropped only meager hints yesterday as he and his 38-year-old bride drove off in a hail of rice, old shoes and confetti.

Unconfirmed reports indicated that the newlyweds stopped in Cairo, Ill., last night for gasoline, but sped south on U.S. Route 51 within a few moments.

Continue Hunt For B-29 Down Near Bermuda

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Peacetime's biggest air-sea hunt went doggedly on today for 20 men aboard a B-29 bomber that crash-landed in the Atlantic some 300 miles northeast of Bermuda Wednesday morning.

The lives of five American flyers have been sacrificed to the search, which involves the greatest fleet of planes and ships ever sent out on such a mercy errand in time of peace. They were killed yesterday when a B-29 carrying nine men crashed into Tampa Bay, Fla., soon after taking off from MacDill field to take part in the hunt. The four other crew members were injured.

Probe Cause Of Four Superfort Bomber Crashes

B-29 Bombers Are Grounded In Effort To Determine Crackup Reasons

STILL HUNT FOR MISSING BOMBER

By EARLE MARCKRES
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—

The air force today begins to examine its grounded B-29 bombers in an effort to determine what caused the crackup of four of the Superforts in three days.

A casualty list of 43 persons dead or missing led Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, chief of staff, to issue the grounding order Friday. It applies to all B-29s which have not undergone modernization or which have been subjected to "maximum operating stresses." The air force refused on security grounds to tell how many of the four-plane crashes are involved. However, there currently are ten B-29 groups in operation, and between 400 and 500 "mothballs" are immediately available.

Crash Causes Unknown
Air force officials were unable to give any definite reason for the crashes. But some quarters were inclined to center their attention on the engines for possible mechanical trouble.

After Vandenberg issues his directive following a conference with Lt. Gen. Curtis E. Lemay, strategic air commander, in Omaha, an air force spokesman summed up official reaction:

"We don't know what the trouble is. Vandenberg wants to get the planes on the ground to have a look at them before anything else happens."

The order, which immobilizes a sizable force of the nation's 800-plane bomber fleet, applies to B-29s in the Far East, Guam and in the U. S.

Russia Demands Recall Of Top Yugoslav Envoy

LONDON, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Russia apparently sought today to sever the last remaining shreds of diplomatic contact with Marshal Tito by demanding the immediate recall of the top Yugoslav emissary in Moscow on charges of "espionage."

At the same time, in a note bristling with threats and additional accusations, the Soviet Union revealed that Yugoslavia has asked the recall of two Russian diplomats in Belgrade. The note said that the officials and one other are being returned from Yugoslavia.

Russia declared that the Yugoslav action is "fresh evidence of the hostile attitude of the Yugoslav government towards the U. S. S. R." and added ominously: "The Yugoslav government will bear the responsibility for this anti-Soviet action."

and psychiatric treatment or by imprisonment—before he commits a violent crime.

Five-Pronged Attack

Hoover called for this five-pronged attack on the sex crime wave:

"1. Parents and school teachers should urge boys and girls to accept no favors, money or candy from strangers, and, above all, never get in a car with a stranger or accompany him any place.

"2. If existing state statutes do not provide for medical and psychiatric treatment and incarceration for the hopelessly incurable, then it is time to pass such a law.

"3. Law enforcement agencies should be provided the facilities and manpower to adequately patrol and cover a community.

"4. Victims of such crimes and their families should report each offense. For every criminal assault reported there are many others that are concealed by victims and their loved ones to escape embarrassing publicity.

"5. Instead of playing down such offenses, I would like to see every newspaper and radio station in the land headline these crimes, pitilessly pointing the spotlight on the offenders and their background while withholding the names of victims even when the case is tried in court."

ous, hard working and ingenious head of a Norwegian immigrant family that consists of three children, a father, and a pet cat. Her efforts to keep her own family plus several relatives in a healthy, happy state proved to be excellent entertainment for more than three hours.

Fine Cast

Citing an individual standout from the well-cast list of 25 players is very difficult and perhaps unfair. Certainly Mama as played by Ruth Simon was one of the best performances by a high school actress.

The young lady had a long, difficult role which included continuously speaking in a Norwegian dialect.

Norma Pearce was the narrator and turned in a fine performance as Katrina. Nancy Reed as the troublesome, boisterous Aunt Jenny was another of the outstanding cast and was responsible for many laughs.

James Smith's portrayal of the rough, loud, but big hearted Uncle Chris was very well done. This role included not only some of the plays funniest acting but also provided its most serious scenes. Poor old mortician Mr. Thorkelson, Howard Haid, was excellent in a minor role that consisted mostly of pantomime.

Performed Well

Others of the cast, all of whom performed exceptionally well are Philip Greenberg as Papa, Joan Long as Dagmar, Anne Wygant as Christine, John Pitzer as Mr. Hyde, Walter Jenkins as Nels, Audrey Shorro as Aunt Trina, Ina Gerson as Aunt Sigrid, Sylvia Smith as Jessie, Frank Moorehead as Dr. Johnson, Charles Scott as Arne, Margie Becker and Victoria Pagley as nurses, Ruth Snyder as a scrubwoman, Ralph Morella as a soda clerk, Gem Pearce as Madeline, Georgia Schenker as Dorothy Schiller, Lillian Saad as Florence Moorehead, Mike Cangey as a bell-boy, Ann McKenzie and Jean Saunders as hotel guests and certainly not least Chico Simon as the cat Uncle Elizabeth.

Present Gifts

During the ten-minute intermission between acts Charles Mancine, president of the class of 1950, presented a large bouquet to Miss Hartsuff for her efforts in behalf of the senior class. Sylvia Smith presented the director with an orchid corsage as a gift from the cast.

The school orchestra made one of its first public appearances of the new school year and its performance was in keeping with the fine play. Under the baton of Joe F. Replogle, school music director, the orchestra played six well-chosen selections.

The care of tuberculosis patients in hospitals in New York state last year cost $23,000,000.

SECRET HEARING GIVEN TO SLAYER OF IDAHO GIRL

auto enthusiast was "calm and competent" at his arraignment.

Carlton said the brief action in the field about 100 yards off U. S. Route 30 didn't attract passing motorists. "No one knew when or where we planned to have it," the sheriff explained.

Cassia County Sheriff Saul H. Clark said the six-foot, well-built admitted slayer would be kept in the Twin Falls jail indefinitely—"until feeling cools down at Burley."

Feelings High

District Judge Hulse A. Baker said he had advised law enforcement officials "not to take Butterfield to Burley, or he might not be alive in the morning."

Glenda's father, Charles, a truck driver, slumped sadly over a cup of coffee early this morning and muttered in a tired voice:

"There's not much I can say. I don't want to commit myself on this fellow. I'm glad he's caught, but everybody knows how I feel."

The father, who's been out of work for nearly two weeks, added:

"It could have been worse. Glenda might have disappeared without a trace for days or maybe weeks. This way at least we know what happened. My wife is taking it very hard."

Youth Trapped

The youth was trapped yesterday in his "hot rod" car near Hammett, Ida. His capture climaxed one of the most extensive manhunts ever carried out in southern Idaho.

Butterfield's statement to Sheriff Clark and Burley Police Chief W. W. Williams omitted any admission he had criminally attacked the child but an autopsy showed definitely that she had been assaulted.

The confession statement issued by Sheriff Clark and Chief Williams said:

"He hit the little girl on the head with a hammer car jack three times and she toppled over into the water. He then took the jack and pushed her further into the water, got into his car and left."

The body of the blonde little girl was found Thursday lying face down in the canal. Her head had been split from the forehead to the back of the neck.

Six-year-old Wayne Wicker, Glenda's playmate, said she had been coaxed into car late Wednesday afternoon.

The youth became a suspect Thursday when it was learned he had not attended school on the day of the kidnapping.

would be eligible to receive $72 a month after January 1, refused the ex-GI's demand for more money, and Hartman drew a pistol and terrorized Criswell for more than an hour.

District Attorney Damion McLaughlin was to return from Cleveland today, and action against Hartman awaited his arrival.

Two charges of assault with intent to kill were filed against Hartman before an alderman. The veteran was held in county jail.

Police said Hartman told them he went to the veterans administration "to get" Arthur Criswell, who is in charge of the Erie office. Hartman was receiving $60 a month from the VA, and wanted more.

He held Criswell at the point of a .38-caliber pistol for nearly an hour after the VA official had refused his request for more money. Police were called, but Hartman kept them outside the room.

Finally Waidinger and May tossed a tear gas bomb into the office and rushed Hartman. The veteran emptied his pistol, four of the shots hitting the officers.

Police said Hartman was discharged from the Army because of his mental condition.

PANEL DISCUSSION

American Association of University Women assembled in the faculty lounge of McGill library at Westminter college Thursday evening, when a timely program was presented.

"Should Communists Be Permitted to Teach in American Colleges and Universities?" was the theme offered by the Westminter Panel Discussion group, who was introduced by Miss Elizabeth Yahn. Melvin Moorhouse opened the discussion, while Miss Phyllis Williams served as moderator. Miss Williams referred to the action at the University of Washington in stating that the beliefs of Communism are incompatible with the purposes of the university.

Miss Mary Ann Bartlett, Miss Barbara Downie, Jack Scanlon and Edward Gallagher were other members of the panel.

The belief that Communists are bent on overthrowing the government was discussed and evaluated. Communist members are to indoctrinate all whom they teach. Mr. Scanlon warned that by denying freedom of speech we are using the same tactics as do the Russian dictators.

The question was raised, "How is it possible for a Communist to control thinking when teaching in different fields?" It was stated that today's American youth is strong enough to evaluate and resist Communist propaganda. The conclusion reached was that because our American way of life gives freedom of speech to all, Communists should be permitted to teach in our colleges and universities.

Bet You Don't Know This About Advertising

by Susan

Quiz No. 3

How much does it cost to advertise a pair of shoes? Is it $2? $3? $5?

Answer: Less than 7¢ of each dollar you pay covers both the manufacturer's and retailer's advertising.

That's only half the story. Advertising lowers your cost two ways:

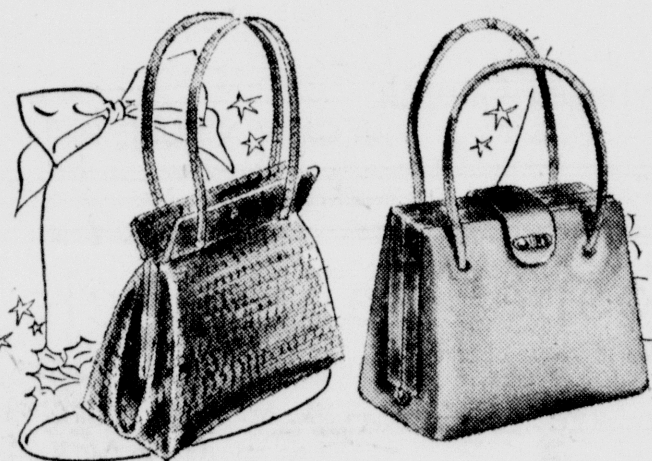

Cuts the selling costs. And by helping make mass production possible, lowers the production costs, too.

So advertising saves you many times that 7¢ per dollar.

New City Building Nearing Completion

Progress is being made on the new city building at North Jefferson and Grant streets. However, it is not yet certain when offices now in the old building at East and Washington street will be moved, but it is anticipated moving day will occur before January 1. The interior of the new structure is being painted, tile-setters are to start operation soon, and electrical work must be completed.

The main, or North Jefferson street lobby, has marble walls. A telephone exchange is located advantageously and through aluminum, glass doors, one may transact business in the legal bureau, the accounts department, assessor's bureau, controller's department, income tax division or treasury. All the foregoing offices except the treasury face North Jefferson street. The treasury is east, or across the hall from those offices.

Court Room On Grant St. Side
There are other offices on the Grant street side, first floor. The courtroom is there. It has a birch wood desk. The room is about 27x23 in size. A rail separates prisoners from spectators. Prisoners must be walked from the basement up a flight of stairs to stand trial.

Across from the courtroom or on the south side, is the police sergeant's room, radio room, office of lieutenant, matron, chief of police and his secretary. The police sergeant can, by pushing a button cause police garage doors, located in the basement wing, to open and close.

On the second floor, North Jefferson street side, are offices of the councilmen, a caucus room, and the private office of the mayor. An office directly in the rear of the mayor's office is for his secretary. The offices have walnut paneling, and floors of tile. The office of the city clerk is located at the north corner, second floor, of the building.

Council Chamber On Second Floor
Also on the second floor, east side of the building, is council chambers. The room is not half as large as are present quarters. The councilmen when in session will occupy places around a desk, semi-circle in shape. The council chambers will accommodate about 50 persons. In the rear, second floor, is engineer's department, consisting of drafting room, building permit office and city engineer's private office. This department is provided the most space of any department.

In the basement portion of the building are located the detective bureau which has a main office, and two additional offices, a police squad room with 38 lockers, and the jail, divided into a male and female department.

When a person is transported by police cruiser to the new city jail, he will be taken into the police garage then walked via a corridor to jail. When he is to face trial will be removed from a cell, walked again through a hallway and up a flight of stairs to the courtroom.

In the sub-basement are the stokers for heating the building. At present a stoker is kept in operation.

Throughout the building men and women's rest rooms have been arranged. In the basement there is a room for transients, and another for delousing purposes. There are storage rooms for the janitorial force on every floor.

Outside the structure the grounds have been landscaped. Reces lighting is to be installed throughout the building. All corridors will be of terrazzo.

St. Paul's Societies To Sponsor Service

Members of the Agnes Schaefer and the Women's Missionary societies of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Grant at Jefferson street, will observe their yearly thank offering service Sunday evening, November 20, at 7:45 o'clock. At that time a film entitled "Patience for Peace" will be shown in the church auditorium.

Youth For Christ To Hear Rev. Moore

New Castle Youth for Christ joins this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the anniversary service of the City Mission at the First Baptist church. The regular youth rally will be conducted with Rev. Marshall leading the song service.

Rev. Claude Moore, of Jamestown, N. Y., president of the International Union of Gospel Missions, will be the speaker. Mrs. Marshall will be heard on the vibra harp.

Rev. Earl Collins will preside over the service, while Miss Pearl Gibbons will preside at the piano and Mrs. Walter Bender at the organ.

Epworth Methodists To See Colored Film

Members of Epworth Methodist congregation will see "The Templed Hills," a sound motion picture in natural color, at their church Sunday evening, November 20, at 7:45 o'clock.

This is the first time in church annals that a complete worship service has been prepared in motion picture form. "The Templed Hills" shows the scenic splendor of the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, Zion National Park, the Carved Canyons and the Great Plains of the Golden Southwest in beautiful natural color.

Film To Be Shown At Third Church

Members of Third United Presbyterian congregation will have a special service Sunday evening, November 20, in the church. Bob Foster's missionary film, "Christian Training Institute in India," will be shown at that time. The meeting will begin at 7:45 o'clock.

REPEAL HAS SUCCEEDED
Alcohol is a depressant, narcotic drug, and not a stimulant. Dr. Haven Emerson tells us the effects of alcohol are almost entirely, if not wholly, to be explained by its toxic damage to the central nervous system, the brain, and spinal cord. It is upon those tissues that the action of alcohol shows most strikingly. It depreciates the divinity of man. The only thing that distinguishes man from the brute is his power of self-direction, self-control, judgment, discretion. Those things are the first qualities of man that are destroyed by alcohol, long before there is any obvious interference with the muscles and motor functions of the body.
Lawrence County WCTU. MRS. MABELLE FOX, Pres.

To Our Friends—
We notice by Thursday's paper that a few people, calling themselves the Democratic Party, have chosen to have a so-called victory dinner.
We recognize the right of any individual to hold a banquet but in order that our friends may not be misled, we hereby state that we have had no part in these arrangements and will not attend.
We still remain grateful to the people of Lawrence County and there is no desire on our part to say that our election was due to a few politicians.

MISSIONARY DINNER
The Ladies Missionary society of Grace Bible church enjoyed a tureen dinner in the church basement Wednesday evening, with the husbands as guests. The tables were decorated with fall flowers, and candles in seashells as individual place markers.

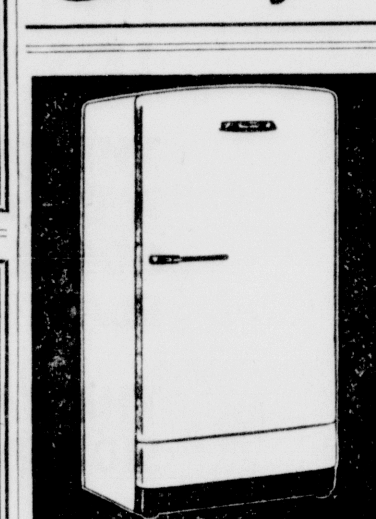

At the close of the dinner, Rev. George Fissel led the group in chorus singing. The society president, Mrs. Ben Gardner, conducted the business meeting and Rev. Fissel gave a short impromptu talk on being missionary minded. He also explained the latest project of the society which was placed in the church auditorium. A large map with tiny lights showing the location of missionaries who are partially supported by the Grace church has been installed. The meeting closed with the benediction and the group adjourned to the main auditorium for the prayer service.

Woman Acquitted On Murder Charge

WILKES-BARRE, Nov. 19. — (INS)—Mrs. Helen E. Bronsavage, 39, of Freehold, acquitted by criminal court of the murder of her common law husband, today took up temporary living quarters in the Luzerne county jail.

A jury of three men and nine women last night returned the verdict of "not guilty" for Mrs. Bronsavage who was charged with the shotgun slaying of Louis Broton in a shack on the outskirts of Freehold.

Informed that she has no living quarters, Judge Thomas Lewis asked Mrs. Bronsavage, the mother of two children, if she wished to stay at the prison until she could arrange for accommodations elsewhere to begin life anew.

She accepted the offer immediately. Previously the court furnished her with counsel because she was penniless.

Mrs. Bronsavage maintained her composure when the court told her she was a free woman but later frankly admitted she had not expected acquittal.

Pet Hunting Dog Leads Father To Body Of His Son

Death Of Son Caused By Hunting Accident; Dog's Actions Reveal Fatality

WATSONTOWN, Nov. 19.—(INS)—A Northumberland county farmer Friday told how a pet hunting dog led him to the body of his son who accidentally killed himself while hunting on the farm.

Clyde Confer, owner of a farm two miles north of Watsonstown, said the dog was whimpering and barking when it returned to the farm house late Wednesday without his son, Nevin, 42.

When the dog set off in the direction from where it came, Confer followed.

Some distance along one of the back fields the dog stopped at the body of Nevin Confer who was lying along a fence row with a 12 gauge shotgun wound near his heart.

Deputy Coroner James Gair and state policeman Lee G. Armbruster declared the death accidental following investigation. They said Confer was dead approximately three hours when found.

Confer, a well known musician in the area and an insurance man, is survived by his wife, a son, parents and brother.

It was the season's first hunting accident in the Watsonstown area.

COMBINE VEGETABLES FOR VARIETY IN MEALS

If you are serving potatoes and gravy with one other vegetable every day, try something different. There are many pleasing combinations of vegetables and your family will enjoy the variety in flavor and color you can achieve.

Avoid using all root vegetables or all succulent ones which leave you hungry. One rather starchy vegetable with one or two more succulent ones make a more satisfying dinner.

One strong flavored vegetable like broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, brussels sprouts, onion, turnip, or green pepper is usually enough in one meal. You can get interesting color combinations, too. Avoid all white vegetables or clashing colors. Some combinations are here suggested. Parsnips browned in butter, steamed tomatoes, endive salad. Sliced carrots, broccoli with Hollandaise sauce, lettuce salad. Succotash (green lima beans and corn) and baked onions. Baked Hubbard squash, buttered spinach with lemon, cooked whole cauliflower. Mashed turnips, whole green beans, cucumbers in vinegar. Fried egg-plant, creamed peas tomato and lettuce salad. Navy beans cooked with ham, 5-minute cabbage, pickled beets. Baked sweet potatoes, buttered kale, crisp celery.

The vegetable combinations will go well with almost any meat. If used as a vegetable plate, probably an additional vegetable will be needed for each group. With a vegetable plate dinner, a cheese or egg sauce or sliced hard-cooked egg and milk to drink should be included for protein value.

Amendment 2-A Defeat In State Brings Statement

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Pennsylvanians don't want property owners to shoulder the entire tax burden, the Pennsylvania Realators Association claimed Friday.

By the defeat in last week's election of Amendment 2-A, which would have permitted redevelopment authorities to have tax exemptions on land used in urban redevelopment for 25 years, the voters "have taken a definite stand against putting additional burdens on home owners," according to President Oscar B. Quinto, of Philadelphia.

Quinto said "slum clearance and better housing can be accomplished through enforcement of sanitation codes, health laws and building regulations by local municipal authorities with the cooperation of property owners."

Scio-Ohio Pottery Head Will Speak Here On Tuesday

Will Make Address To Business And Economic Foundation Forum

On Tuesday, November 22 at 8:00 p. m. L. P. Reese, president of the Scio-Ohio Pottery Company will be the speaker and discussion leader at a public forum which The Economic and Business Foundation is sponsoring at The Castleton Hotel in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

The title of Mr. Reese's talk will be "A Story of the Scio Pottery in Private Competitive Enterprise." Mr. Reese's visit to New Castle affords a rare opportunity for residents in this area to hear the fascinating story of the operation of free competitive enterprise in an era in which many are inclined to believe that free enterprise cannot flourish. The story of the original development of the Scio Pottery is in itself a fascinating one which becomes even more phenomenal when one relates to it the rebuilding of the pottery following the disastrous fire of a few years ago.

The meeting is open to the public.

There are a limited number of vacancies for high school graduates who can meet the qualifications in the regular navy. It is announced by Chief James Hodge of the local navy recruiting office.

Openings For High School Graduates In Regular Navy

High school graduates meeting the qualifications will be sent to navy trade schools under the high school graduate program.

Plaingrove Union

Yearly roll call meeting of Plaingrove WCTU took place in the home of Mrs. Minnie Martin. Using the theme, "His Life and Ours", Mrs. Ruth Shaw led devotions. After offering a prayer for temperance, Mrs. Shaw read a poem, "Christ Has No Hands, But Our Hands", and spoke on the topic "On Depths of Love".

Mrs. Martha McCommon, the leader, conducted roll call. The following spoke: Florence Winder, "Where Do We Stand?"; Mina Neel, "Yesterday"; Vida McNulty, "Today"; Pearl Patterson, "Are We Ready To Go Forward?"; and Mrs. McCommon, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them".

Nancy Lusk and Mary Burns gave reports of the convention, while Margaret Peebles reported about the work shop of the five counties in New Castle.

Mrs. Betty Rodgers will entertain at her home December 14, when Ruth Shaw will serve as leader.

Harlansburg Union

Harlansburg WCTU was entertained in the home of Mrs. Gladys McConnell. Mrs. Mabel McElwani, the leader, chose "Thanksgiving" as her topic.

A discussion about the various feasts, recorded in the Bible, followed. Those taking part in the discussion follow: Mrs. Mildred Allison, "The Passover"; Mrs. Norma McKissick, "The Pentecost"; and Miss Mary Copper, "The Feast of Tabernacles".

Mrs. Pearl McCormick's theme was "The First American Thanksgiving". Mrs. Alice McKissick offered prayer. Articles about the subject, "Oklahoma Went Dry", were read by Mrs. Florence McKnight and Mrs. Lulu Hettenbaugh.

Mrs. Alice McKissick presided at the business session. Members of the union signed a paper to be sent to the editor of "Life" magazine, protesting the advertising of liquor in that periodical.

Mrs. Mae Peebles, Mrs. Jennie Blevens and Mrs. Norma McKissick aided the hostess in serving lunch.

The next meeting, an all day one, will be held in the home of Mrs. Florence McKnight with a luncheon being served at noon. Toys will be made for Christmas gifts. Mrs. Bertha Knerman will serve as the leader, while Bertha Eakin, Edith Harlan and Bertha McCullough will be aides.

County Executives Meet

Lawrence County W. C. T. U. executive board met Thursday afternoon in the lounge at the Y. W. C. A., with Mrs. Scott Munnell in charge of the Thanksgiving devotional period.

Announcements were made of several Diamond Jubilee prayer and purpose meetings which will commemorate the organizing of the National W. C. T. U. at Cleveland, O., November 18, 19, 20, 1874.

Dr. Addison H. Leitch, dean and professor of Theology, Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, and former interim pastor of Highland U. P. church, will speak when Lawrence County W. C. T. U. meets at Third U. P. church on January 12, for its annual Loyalty luncheon.

Graduate Student Is Electrocuted In Harvard Laboratory

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 19.—(INS)—A 28-year-old Scarsdale, N. Y., graduate student was electrocuted Friday while working at Harvard University's Van Serg laboratory.

Peter Harbury, studying for his Ph.D. in applied physics and described as a brilliant physicist by associates, was doing research work on wave propagation when struck and killed by 5,000 volts of electricity.

Leonard Wertanen, Quincy, a laboratory employee, assisting in the experiment, caught Harbury as he staggered back from the machine.

Harbury announced, "I'm all right," took a few steps and collapsed.

Wesley Perry, a fellow student, applied artificial respiration, and adrenalin injections were administered by Dr. Briant Leray Decker.

Sheriff Moves For Box Opening

Believes He Is Entitled To More Votes In First Precinct Of Neshannock

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Sheriff Frank L. Coen has asked that the ballot box of the first precinct of Neshannock township be opened in the belief that the work sheet of the return board shows him getting less votes than he actually did.

The totals on the return sheets filed with the County Election board show Coen getting 592 votes and C. Metheny Buzard 118. The work sheet has tallies down for only 425.

The total vote cast in this precinct varies from 625 to over 700, with the totals of the various offices running close except for sheriff. Mr. Coen believes the total of 592 is right, although the work sheet shows but 425.

The Official Return board noticed the difference but, inasmuch as the work sheet had only 425 markers down, for Coen changed the total to read the same.

Mr. Coen has posted a $50 bond for the opening of the box and the votes will be recounted. The county totals for the sheriff fight showed Coen getting 23,045 and Buzard 13,326.

Governor Urges All Faiths To Observe Food-Sharing Day

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff urged all faiths to share Pennsylvania's "abundant harvest" with the hungry and homeless of the world and designated November 20 as food-sharing day.

"The Christian Rural Overseas Program," the governor said, "sponsored by all the Christian churches of America, Protestant and Catholic, is currently collecting food in this state."

"I urge all our citizens to dedicate their gifts of food on food-sharing day to the hungry people of Europe and Asia, in the spirit of Thanksgiving."

Always Be Prepared There Might Be Bugs

PHILADELPHIA.—(INS)—Be prepared.

When Joseph O'Neill was arrested near his Philadelphia home for intoxication he asked permission to get something from his house before proceeding to jail.

A patrolman consented, and O'Neill returned with a flit gun.

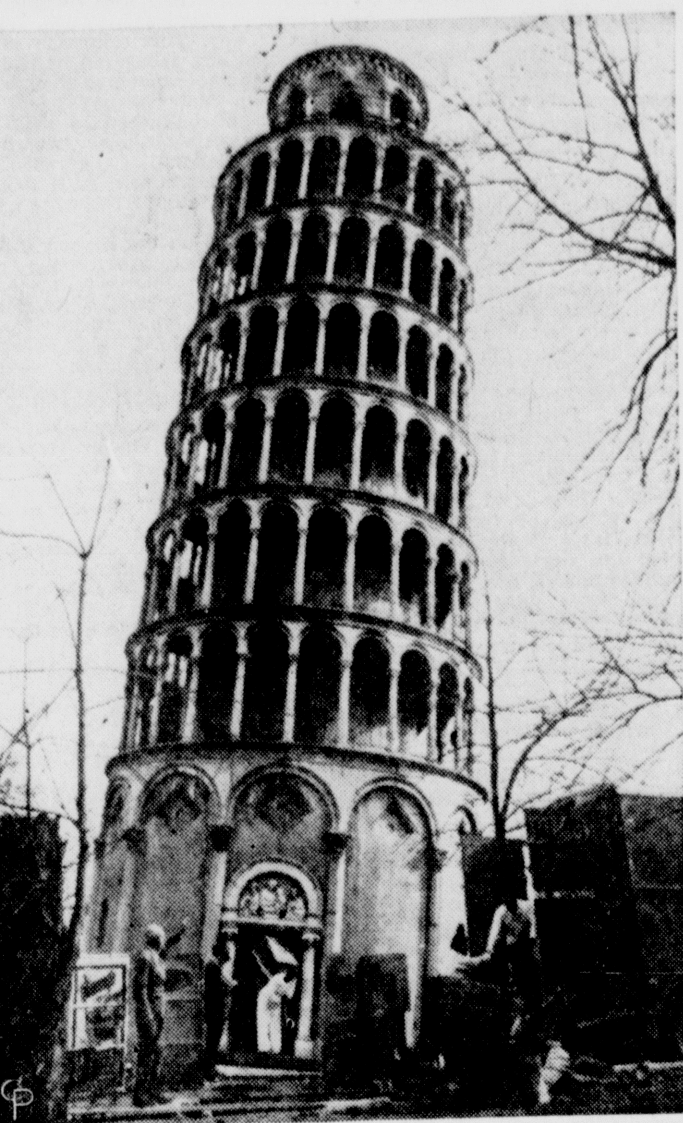

After totting the gun to his cell, O'Neill was asked what he wanted it for.

Spraying his cell rather thoroughly, O'Neill replied, "I know."

IDEAL FOR A LOP-SIDED FAMILY

LEAVING the "leaning tower of Pisa" home in which he and his family had lived since 1932, Robert A. Ig, 62 (lower left), waves as furniture is loaded aboard a truck to be taken to the Igs' new home in San Francisco. The 102-foot tower will be left as a monument. Actually it is a 100,000-gallon water tank, built by Ig. It leans seven degrees off plumb. Furniture had to be propped up seven degrees to make it stand level. (International Soundphoto)

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 19.—It is a natural phenomenon that a flock of guys and gals who play in Hollywood have changed their real names for more appropriate noms de cinema.

One launching a promising screen career hardly could be expected to grace the Marquee under his family handle of Adolph Nockenbuser.

And how could a fluffy bit of femininity use her calling name, Darlene Mae Strudel?

Many producers and directors latch on to other names for euphony in credit billings.

Use Different Names
Hundreds of actors and actresses have adopted stage names. Claire Windsor was born Viola Cronk. Edward G. Robinson signs his checks Emanuel Goldenberg. Mary Pickford's originally was Gladys Smith; Ramon Novarro was Ramon Samanuegas and Lila Lee used to be known as Augusta Appel.

But the fellows who are content with their actual birthday appellations are the stand-ins of the movie dodge.

What brought all of this to our attention was a quick gander today at the "cell sheet" at Universal-International studios listing various stand-ins for members of the company filming "Deported."

Smack off the bat we bumped into the name of Bud Weiser.

That's his legal name. Mr. Weiser, a roving stand-in, currently is performing his chores for Jeff Chandler, leading man of the flicker which was shot partially in Italy and now is being completed on the Hollywood sound stages.

No Billfinger
Standing-in for Claude Dauphin, French heart throb imported for one of the main roles in the film, was a gent with the cognomen of Horace Billfinger.

"Why," asked Horace, "should I change it? What if my name might not be appropriate for show business? Listen, Jack, I work more steadily than half the actors I stand in for."

Ellsworth Sweetwater is another member in good standing of the stand-in ranks who works "steady" around the flicker factories. So does a personable young lass who stood-in for Marta Toren a few days ago. Her name is Purenia Bucklewink.

A quick search of studio files revealed that other gentlemen of the stand-in profession in these parts are Willis Barnhouse, Isaac Figbar, Daracula Danhope, Wilma Woon, Percy Carstairs-Britwhait and Chief Dirty Mud, a Seminole Injun.

JOSEPH B. GOODMAN HOME FOR 20 DAYS
Joseph B. Goodman, SN, USN, son of Mrs. Thomas Goodman, 107 Philips place, is home on 20-day leave from Navy Submarine Base, Key West, Fla.

Upon completion of his leave he will return to the submarine base. He enlisted in the navy in November, 1947.

Gift Boxes Being Prepared By Junior Red Cross Members

Over 700 Boxes From County Schools Will Be Sent To Overseas Children

Over 700 gift boxes are being filled this year by Lawrence County Junior Red Cross members for shipment to boys and girls overseas, it is announced by Mrs. F. E. Eichholtz, Junior Red Cross chairman.

Boxes include soap, wash cloths, tooth brushes, combs, pencils, crayons, toys, and a variety of other things, including a letter from the school that sent the box. Schools from all over the county are helping to fill these gift boxes, which have been gratefully received by the children in other countries in past years. Many interesting letters are received yearly by the schools thanking them for their kindness.

Mrs. A. D. Patterson, Mrs. F. E. Eichholtz and Mrs. John Hite, members of the Junior Red Cross committee, are now checking the boxes and preparing them for the mail.

Remaining boxes must be at the chapter house by November 23 so that they can be checked and in the mail by November 30, it is announced. The Red Cross will arrange to pick them up at the school if they are notified when they are ready.

VITAMINS AND VITALITY

America seems to be a country of styles and fads and trends. When it is the style to wear them long the girls all wear them long.

Vitamins seem to be in style now. If you are sick, somebody tells you that you need vitamins.

Vitamin pills are sold by the millions. They are sort of a cure all. They are good for what ails you. They are said to prevent baldness and gray hair and old age. After a while vitamins will go out of style. They will be used for what they are worth and no more than that.

Something else will be in style and do wonderful things for a while.

Find Two Guilty Of Selling Answers In Pharmacy Tests

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Two men, charged with selling answers to state pharmacy examinations, were found guilty Friday by a Philadelphia jury.

Mark L. Rothman, vice chairman of the State Board of Pharmacy, was found guilty on six indictments, four charging feloniously accepting a bribe, one for malfeasance in office and extortion, and one charging conspiracy.

Dr. David C. Gross, patent medicine manufacturer, was convicted on two bills, the first charging bribery, extortion and corrupt solicitation and the other for conspiracy.

Judge Bok permitted both defendants to remain at liberty under $1,000 bail each pending disposition of a new trial motion made by defense counsel after the verdict was returned.

The jury reached its verdict after two hours and 45 minutes.

Lt. Whittaker To Tell Experiences In City Sunday

Lt. James C. Whittaker will tell the thrilling story of his 21 days adrift at sea, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church, North Jefferson street.

Indications are that a capacity crowd will be on hand to hear this first hand story of the man who with Captain Eddie Rickenbacker and six other men, spent day after day afloat on their rubber life rafts awaiting rescue.

'Truth Serum' Used In Amnesia Case

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Gallinger hospital authorities have used "truth serum" to induce an attractive young amnesia victim to disclose her name.

According to hospital authorities, the girl had been a patient at the hospital since Nov. 2 and efforts to learn her identity were fruitless.

But Thursday, they said, the "truth serum"—sodium pentothal—was given the girl with her consent. Under its influence she said her name was Carol May Harrison, 21, of New York. She said her married name was Harris.

ROBBERS GET $6,700
FARMINGTON, Ky., Nov. 19.—(INS)—Police and sheriff's deputies hunted today for two men who "broke" the bank of Farmington with a $6,700 holdup.

The gunmen entered the bank yesterday while its president, Clinton Jones, was alone in the building. Jones said one of the men told him:

"This is a holdup. Where's your money?"

Jones said the bandits took all the cash from the teller's cage and vault, and fled after shutting him in the vault.

The loot was all the money that the small bank had on hand.

The Bureau of the Budget was established by an act of Congress, passed June 10, 1921, under President Harding.

Party Is Planned By Committee Of Representatives From YWCA Classes

Thursday at a planning committee meeting, representatives from all the YWCA classes planned for a smorgasbord supper and program to be on Tuesday, December 6, at 6 o'clock in the auditorium of the YW. This event will close the very successful fall season.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Mary Margaret McBride, late for a broadcast, squeezed into a crowded Fifth avenue bus. Three times a gallant gentleman with a Van Dyke beard attempted to rise, but Miss McBride pushed him back into his seat each time. "None of this outmoded false gallantry," she chided. "I'm a working woman and I can stand just as well as the next one."

On his fourth attempt, the gentleman thrust out his jaw (and beard) and said firmly, "This time you simply must let me get out, madam. I'm seven blocks past my stop now."

Miguel Covarrubias, the author of Mexico South, was describing the rugged, impassable terrain of eighty per cent of that country. "I was driving on a dirt road on the hills about fifty miles from Mexico City one day," he said, "when I lost my way. Eventually, I passed a farmer and asked him, 'How can I get from here to the city?' He looked at me quite calmly and said, 'You can't.'"

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB
(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed By International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Metropolitan Opera opens its 65th annual season at the same old Broadway stand come Monday night, and the cops on the beat will be armed with good strong butterfly nets for the occasion.

Recent openings of the Metropolitan, combining a mixed menagerie of sopranos, cafe society strip tease artists and balancing acts, have given rise to a new question in the old opera house. The old query, "Is there a doctor in the house?" has been replaced by the more terse and modern "Is there a psychoanalyst present?"

Has Perked Up
The Met opening, which was a dull dish in my salad days, has perked up immeasurably in recent years since the extroverts took it over, lock, stock and barrel tenors.

When I covered my first Met opening 21 years ago came "Rigoletto," the big news of the event was whether Mrs. Vanderbilt wore her diamond stomach or her necklace, or went whole hog and came in both.

But no venerable belle can expect to get her name on the front pages next Tuesday morning unless, on opening night, she stands on her noggin, heists a leg up on the bar or smokes a corn-cob pipe in the lounge.

Last year, if my shaken memory holds, a brace of ladies lavishly shed their diamonds to the accompaniment of shrill cries, police reports and mighty satisfactory front-page accounts of their losses. One of these hapless ladies was so overcome by the heat of the night, where she was sipping champagne to the tedium of the music, that she slipped off her diamond rings to cool off.

Clean Forget Them
And land sakes! Didn't she clean forget and absent-mindedly put her own ice in the ice bucket accompanying the champagne? Probably never would have seen the ring again if some waiter hadn't picked it up and started chipping it into smaller pieces, to pack in another bucket of the bubbly.

Then there was the grand dame who brought her sparring partner with her. Did a fast round in the bar between acts. Funny as anything you ever saw on television. What the head-line hunters will do to attract attention come Monday night is anybody's guess. But I am willing to bet that no matter how wild your guess it won't be half as outlandish as the stunts these Katzenjammer Kids will think up on their own.

There is a tendency on the part of the old guard, including the officials of the Metropolitan, to over-decorate the Follies Bergere overtones of recent openings, and to sign for the old days.

Nonsense, say I. Refinement is for yokels. Big city folks want fun. Until the audience began to get into the act, an opening at the Metropolitan was for yawns or long-hairs. Now, anybody can play.

Cut In On High Jinks
Once more the well-bred management of the Metropolitan has sent a letter to city editors of all New York newspapers and syndicates, asking their "cooperation and assistance" in seeing that stories and pictures of the opening festivities are "in keeping with the time-honored reputation" of the opera house.

This current missive by Margaret Carson, the Met's pretty press agent, is a follow-up of a similar but longer letter sent out a year ago by Mr. Edward Johnson, manager of the Met, asking the press to ignore "the actions of any few patrons who may be lacking in good manners and good taste."

I take issue with Miss Carson and Mr. Johnson. Since the city closed up the burlesque houses some years ago, where can the people have a Raman holiday except at Met openings?

A few more years of really bang-up shenanigans and who knows?—Perhaps the Met can even pay off the mortgage. In the interest of the Met, Miss Carson and Mr. Johnson, I am tempted on Monday night to offer $100 to the first belch who can slide down the banisters, astride without tipping her mitt or her tiara.

Housewife Wins Treasure Hunt

Mrs. G. M. Little, North Side Pittsburgh housewife, was the winner of a new Buick as first prize in the Kroger's "Brand Name Treasure Hunt" contest that closed November 16.

Mrs. Little also received a basket of groceries for her winning answer on the "name the product" program.

SET PRICE OF CREAM

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—The 25 cents a half pint charged for cream by dealers in the Pittsburgh milk marketing area was sanctioned today by the Dauphin county court.

An order of the State Milk Control commission trimmed two cents from the price last August but the Greater Pittsburgh Milk Dealers association challenged the cut in the court's commonwealth division at Harrisburg.

A temporary order issued in August halted the price reduction pending final decision.

The court ruled that the MCC failed to substantiate its reason for trimming the cream price.

An enjoyable Christmas party will be held on December 15, further arrangements to be made. A new member present was Mrs. Mary Giordano. Special guest was Louise Morgan. Later the hostesses, Mrs. Jess Lastoria, Mrs. Leo Verino and Mrs. Joseph Ross served a tasty lunch.

December 1, is the next meeting, with Mrs. Cecelia Perrotta, Mrs. Philip Ross and Mrs. Gabriel Aurilio, as hostesses.

Let's Show The Red Hurricane What We Think, Next Saturday

Once again New Castle's high school football team has brought credit to us all. Ten games without a defeat, games that called for head and heart and muscle. Games that called for gallant goal line stands, and every game saw eleven New Castle lads out on the field fighting as a unit.

Next Saturday comes the season's supreme test, the battle for the WPIAL championship in Pitt Stadium. Not all of us can go of course, but those of us who can, why not show the team what we really think? Let's be there to root the team in.

The PMTA is proud of the team, proud of Phil Bridenbaugh and Bill Klee and Gig Thomas, the coaches. Not alone because of the victories but because of the never say die spirit, the team work and the will to win.

Warriors Thump Stags 103 To 88

(International News Service)

The Chicago Stags tenure in the Central Division leadership of the National Basketball association proved today to have been short-lived.

Philadelphia swamped the Stags, 103 to 88, last night to fracture a six-game Chicago winning streak. The Stags tumbled out of the top spot, they had occupied for only 24 hours, giving way to the Minneapolis Lakers.

In the other half of a double-header at Philadelphia, the New York Knickerbockers handed the Denver Nuggets their 11th straight loss, 85 to 73.

The big pro circuit has practically everybody busy today with seven games on tap, to wit: Minneapolis at Anderson, Boston at Baltimore, Waterloo at Indianapolis, Philadelphia at New York, Denver at Rochester, Ft. Wayne at Tri-Cities and Chicago at Washington.

HIGHLIGHTS on SPORTS by WINTER'S
Lightning in Harness
It was in August 1935 that Greyhound, greatest of the nation's three-year-old trotters won the $33,000 "Hambeltonian"—the accepted classic of harness horse racing in America. The race was run on the famous Good Time mile track at Goshen, N. Y., before a huge crowd of 40,000 enthusiastic "harness" fans.
Greyhound, a 1 to 2 favorite, swept through the event in two straight heats. Driven by Sep Palin of Indianapolis, Greyhound came up from last in a field of nine to chalk up the fastest time (2:02 1/2) run by a winner of the event since the first Hambeltonian in 1926, nine years previously. In the 2nd heat, Greyhound was in 2nd place as he came into the stretch, and then, kicking up a cloud of dust, raced past the leading horse "Warwell Worthy," and thundered across the finish line 2 lengths ahead. His time for this 2nd heat was 2:02 3/4. Winning two heats in a row eliminated the need for the 3rd heat and Greyhound added the winner's purse of $18,700 to his record.
For a "winner" in style, quality and tailoring, see our Kuppenheimer overcoats, for sale exclusively at Winter's Men's Store. We have a smart variety of these coats in the latest new models and colors. Come in to Winter's NOW, and take timely advantage of these remarkable values.

Four Y.M.C.A. Basketball Leagues Will Begin Play Next Week

More Than 500 Young Athletes Will Participate

Two Church Loops, Industrial And Senior 'Y' Ready To Open

More than 500 men and boys of the city and surrounding territory have signed up to take part in one of four basketball leagues which begin play at the Y next week.

For more than two weeks senior teams have been practicing, signing up players, and laying plans to capture a championship and one of the many tournament titles that will be offered during the next four months of busy cage activity at the YMCA.

Four Senior Leagues
The four leagues, with six team each, in the senior classification are Civic Industrial, Senior Y, "A" Church and "B" Church league.

Civic-Industrial loop play starts Monday. Three games will be on each night's card beginning at 7 o'clock. Some of the fastest teams in the county participate in this league and many of the better players in the district. United Engineering, last year's champion in this league as well as City-County title winners, will be back to defend its laurels.

Strong competition should come from any of the other five entries, Morella's, Universals, B.O. El Fityer, or a newcomer, Terrace School, for Terrace.

Shines Change Name
The Senior Y league, formerly known as the House league, will play on Tuesday evenings. The six teams competing for top honors here are Ecclesiens, Redskins, Rebels, Wings, Shamrocks, and Wabash Bears. The Ecclesiens won the prize last year and the championship of all Y senior leagues while playing under the name of G. I. Shines.

Church league play gets underway Wednesday night. The "A" circuit play starts Thursday. Church league basketball has been played at the Y for more than 20 years.

Last season two separate league were formed and the arrangement worked out very satisfactorily. It will be continued this year.

First Presby, First Methodist, First Baptist, Third U. P., Central Christian, and Central Presby comprise the "B" teams.

In the "A" loop generally conceded to be somewhat faster, are last year's church league champions, First U. P., and the champions of the "B" league, Wampum. Other contenders are Epworth, First Congregational, St. George, and Croton.

The Y has again taken steps to secure high-class officiating for league play. A staff of eight referees will be employed to handle most of the games throughout the season.

Plan Tournaments
League play will be divided into three rounds this season. Each team will play the other in its league once each round, which means a 15-game schedule. The winners of the first and second round will play off to meet the champion of the third round in a championship series.

There will be a week's layoff between each round. During that time Y physical director Harold Pears plans to conduct a series of tournaments. The first, which comes December 26, will be a 16-team senior tournament. Other tournaments include junior affair for boys under 17. Also on the tournament schedule is the annual junior gold medal tournament for boys 17 to 20, and the Y championship playoffs.

Twelve teams have entered the junior church league which starts Saturday afternoon league play early in December. Each team has signed a squad of 12 which means that 144 boys will participate in this loop.

Bargain Prices
There is no charge for admission to the junior church games. A standard fee of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents has been established for one night's admission to a card of three games in any of the four senior leagues. Harold Pears, Y physical director, has announced that special rates will be made available to those who are planning to attend regularly each week. Information concerning the bargain admission prices may be obtained at the Y desk.

Bolts End Season; Take Minerva 20-0

Ellwood Team Racks Up Seventh Straight Win Easily Friday Night; Have One Loss

(Special To The News)

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Ellwood City Boltsters ended their 1949 grid season last night at Lincoln High field by defeating the Minerva, O. Merchants, 20 to 0.

The victory was the seventh straight for the Ellwood Vets and like the high school, played a complete season undefeated at home. The Bolts have a season record of eight wins and a loss. The single setback was the second game of the season at Pitsa.

A little more than 1,000 well-chilled fans were on hand for last night's fray. The Bolts dominated play throughout and registered 15 first downs to one for the visitors.

Tillia Scores
Dale Tillia scored Ellwood's first TD late in the opening period.

Ellwood had recovered a fumble deep in visitors' territory. Tillia dropped back to pass from the five-yard line, found no receivers, and ran over for six points.

Ellwood recovered the on side kick, and scored soon after the second period got under way. Bill Elwood bucked 15 yards for the tally.

Ellwood opened up a new series of plays late in the game. Using a wide, spread formation, the Bolts picked up seven first downs in seven plays. Dale Tillia passed to Don Hutchison four yards for the tally. Steve Mastriak connected on two of three conversion attempts from placement.

No Turkey Game
The Bolts had originally planned to play a New Castle team on Thanksgiving Day but a suitable foe was not available at the time.

Score by Periods:
Ellwood VFV 7 6 0 7-20
Townships: Club for Manuzzi, Hutchison (sub for Chesko), Conversions: Mastriak 2 (placement).

Completing Deal For Indians Sale

CLEVELAND, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Ellis W. Ryan, prospective new president of the Indians, and his associates are expected to take over the Cleveland Baseball Co. Monday in Cleveland.

President Bill Veck, Business Manager Rudie Schaeffer and Secretary Ben Fieri are scheduled to meet with the group at the stadium to complete the reported $2,200,000 transaction.

WHITE SOX SIGN BILL CONNELLY

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Big right-hander Bill Connelly was added to the Chicago White Sox draft choices a few hours before the midnight deadline last night.

The 24-year-old hurler won 8 and lost 11 last season with the American Association's last-place Toledo Mudhens.

Sox General Manager Frank Lane who termed Connelly a "sleeper" said the moundman has a good curve and fast ball.

KRAMER-SEGURA KEEP ON WINNING

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Jack Kramer and Pancho Segura, both seasoned tennis pros, continued their runaway today over their novice opponents, Pancho Gonzales and Frank Parker.

Kramer won his 14th in 17 starts and tenth in a row by defeating Gonzales, 6-11, 8-6, 7-5, at the Jamaica amory last night. Segura downed Parker for the 13th time, 6-1, 6-3.

PITT FRESHMEN DEFEATED 14-7

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 19.—(INS)—West Virginia University's freshmen eleven held a 14-7 triumph today over Pitt's freshmen in the last game of the year for the two teams.

The game played at Morgantown yesterday, saw Pitt's only score in the second period on a 24-yard pass from Joe Cappe to Anthony Simile.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

BEAR season ends today and the deer season starts November 28 and runs through December 9. The sheriff's office is supposed to concern itself only with legal matters. However, it is common knowledge that it is an "Information Center," and one of the most genial dispensers of information concerning outdoor life is Deputy Sheriff Latschaw. Proof that Joe Louis yet retains some hitting power, is gleaned from his dropping John Shkor, Boston heavyweight, three times during their eight round exhibition, which was witnessed by 3,471 Bostonians. Vincent M. McNamara, Buffalo, has been elected president of the Class D Pony loop for a second year. Mid-Atlantic league will meet with President Elmer Dailey at two o'clock, Sunday, in Butler. The club-owners are asked to report with the intention of stating their plans for 1950. The M-A will also meet during the Minor league convention in Baltimore, in December. Erie and Youngstown, although reported to plan a leap into the Central League, will be back in the M-A, according to President Dailey.

Fred J. Saddy, executive secretary of the Wisconsin State Athletic commission, is slated to become the head of the National Boxing Association. Saddy once fought Jack Dempsey. That was in Memphis, during March of 1917. He lasted less than a round. "I was young, and ambitious about a boxing career. After that bout, I knew boxing was not for me, and that for my money, Dempsey already was the champion." Saddy stated at Havana, Cuba, where the NBA met. Ronnie Delaney beat Cecil Hudson at Akron, Nick Barrone outpointed Chubby Wright at Syracuse and Buddy Baggett out-boxed Manny Soto at Dallas. Cobb tallied 2,244 runs during his 22 year major league career, or 102 a season. Ben Hogan's 276 is the lowest score ever posted in the U. S. Open. He turned in the score in 1943. In 1886 Harvard was a bear for scoring, having netted 765 points in 14 games for a 54-point average per game.

Hugh Fullerton reports an item from Hialeah says Mrs. E. DuPont Weir's horse, Royal Governor, drinks milk by the gallon and eats scrambled eggs with oats, which recalls that Arnum Emery, Butler county farmer, mixed crude oil with oats he fed his farm horses which he said was good for their "innards" and gave them a sleek coat. Harvey Harmon, a former Ne-Ca-Hi grid star, now Rutgers football coach, is heading a move to outlaw the two-platoon system. He says it must be removed or the game is doomed. He says a two or three player substitution is favored. Harmon is a member of the Grid Rules committee. Apparently wrestling is replacing boxing in Butler and McKeesport. The crowd here Wednesday, exceeded crowds attracted by recent boxing bouts. In Pittsburgh, Fritz Zivic, former welterweight boxing champion, has turned to wrestling. He has Don Eagle opposed to perfumed Gorgeous Georges, Monday night.

Is Charlie Mayne, former mayor, now about 77 years of age, the oldest football player in New Castle? Mayor John F. Haven will attend the New Castle-McKeesport game at Pitt Stadium, November 26, he said today. Captain "Whiffet" McBride is stationed in Panama, which recalls he was an athlete when Pete Askounes promoted wrestling at Centennial field. Lou Shirley, deputy commissioner, Pittsburgh, recalled several nights ago when a New Castle policeman, used his blackjack to stop the charge of a wrestler who emerged from the ring and while "dazed" bowled over several ringside spectators. A local fisherman complained recently that after fishing a stream for two hours, he was informed it was polluted which causes the inquiry: "Why not ask the Fish commission to post signs along such streams, denoting they are polluted?"

Banquet Plans Catching Fire

Since the announcement yesterday about the proposed gigantic public acclaim banquet for the New Castle High football team, there has been a great response by all social, civic and fraternal organizations in town to cooperate.

It was revealed by General Chairman William Sands today.

A meeting of all clubs in the city will be held at the Eagles Club next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Win, Lose Or Tie
The purpose of the banquet is to pay honor to a great bunch of boys win, lose or tie at the stadium with McKeesport next Saturday.

At the meeting Tuesday the date and place of the banquet will be determined, and many details ironed out.

Only with everybody cooperating 100 percent can this big project be put over," Sands stated.

ANGOTT REFUSED LICENSE TO FIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(INS)—The third attempted comeback by former lightweight boxing champ Sammy Angott may be all right in some states—but New York says he's too old.

The New York State Athletic Commission refused yesterday to license Angott, who had signed to meet Carmine Basilio in Syracuse next Wednesday.

MIAMI CLAIMS FLORIDA TITLE

MIAMI, Nov. 19.—(INS)—The mythical Florida state football championship was claimed today by the University of Miami Hurricanes who mauled the Florida Gators 28 to 13 last night before a record regular season throng of 55,981 in the Orange Bowl.

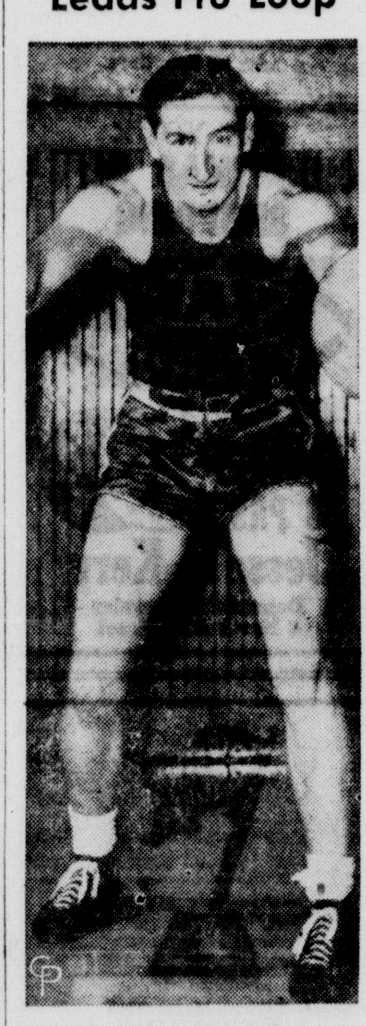

BRIDGEVILLE ROMPS TO CLASH B CROWN

WILKINSBURG, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Bridgeville won the WPIAL class B football championship and its 25th consecutive victory last night by defeating Trafford high school 64-0 in Wilksburg.

Cleveland Win Sunday Will Clinch Title Fourth Time In Row In AL Conference

By JOHN BARRINGTON (International News Service Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—If they were certain that lightning doesn't strike ten times in the same place, the New York Yankees would feel confident today of stopping Cleveland's march to a fourth straight All-America Conference championship.

The Yankees and Browns met tomorrow in New York in a game that will go far toward settling the pro football league's regular season champion.

But the best the Yanks have gotten in nine previous starts against Cleveland is a 28-to-28 tie in one 1947 game.

Can Clinch Title
A Cleveland win will clinch the crown, for the Browns have only one game left with Chicago on Thanksgiving Day. A New York victory will put the Yankees in first place and could mean the title because of those who Cleveland ties.

However, the Yankees won't be out of the woods even if they end the Brownie jinx. They face two more games in the next seven days, at Los Angeles on Thanksgiving and at San Francisco the next Sunday.

The Yank-Brownie contest is by all odds the game of the week in pro football. In other AAC contests, Chicago plays at Buffalo and Los Angeles at Baltimore.

The Hornets, Bills and Donz are scrambling for a berth in the league's post-season playoffs. Cleveland, New York and San Francisco already have three of the four spots nailed down.

Eagles Vs. Bulldogs
In the National League, the Eastern division leaders, the Philadelphia Eagles, are host to the cellar-dwelling New York Bulldogs. The occasion isn't as cut-and-dried as might be expected, however, for the Eagles will be without their star ball carrier, Bosh Pritchard.

The Los Angeles Rams, tops in the Western division, play the Chicago Cardinals at Chicago. The Chicago Bears are at Washington, Pittsburgh meets Green Bay at Milwaukee, and Detroit and the Glas clash in New York in opposition to the Yanks and Browns.

Ellwood-Wampum Turkey Shoot

Ellwood City and Wampum Rod & Gun club will hold a lucky target turkey shoot at their grounds along the Wampum-Ellwood City highway at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. In shooting of this type the novice has as good a chance as the expert. It is open to the public, according to Harold McKim, secretary.

GANNON CAPTURES SEVENTH IN ROW

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 19.—(INS)—Gannon College is only one game away from a perfect record today in its first season of football competition.

The Erie team made it seven in a row last night, beating Ashland, O. College 33 to 13.

The Ashland touchdowns were the second and third scored against Gannon this year.

Refuse To Allow Robinson To Fight

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—(INS)—A scheduled Monday night boxing show at St. Louis has been canceled because Ray (Sugar) Robinson, world's welterweight champion, was ruled "in no condition to fight."

Robinson was to have fought Kansas City's Roy Miller in a feature 10-round non-title event. The ruling on his condition was made by the State Boxing Commission yesterday after the champ's arrival in St. Louis. He said his right shoulder had been injured. A commission doctor diagnosed Robinson's injury as "myositis of the shoulder."

Johnny Bratton Winner By TKO

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Johnny Bratton, aiming for a title bout with welterweight champion Ray (Sugar) Robinson, scored a second-round TKO last night over Canada's Gaby (Frenchy) Ferland in Chicago stadium.

Bratton, making his first start since he knocked out Chuck Taylor in the second round last September, floored Ferland twice for an eight-count. Referee Frank Gilmer stopped the scheduled 10-rounder at 2:18 of the second.

Reds And Barons Tangle Tonight

(International News Service)
The Providence Reds, top Eastern division team of the American Hockey league, are in Cleveland for the first time this season for tonight's game with the Barons.

The Western Division leading Clevelanders defeated the Reds, 6-3, in Providence earlier this season. Tonight they try for their ninth straight victory.

Five Points Behind
The Red are only five points behind the Barons' 25, and one point ahead of their own division's New Haven Ramblers who move to Pittsburgh tonight to meet the Hornets.

The 19-19 point deadlock between the Ramblers and St. Louis will probably be broken tonight when the Cincinnati Mohawks hit the Missourians' rink.

Other games scheduled for today include Indianapolis at Springfield and Buffalo at Hershey.

CALIFORNIA WINS CLASS A TITLE

Defense Costs Must Remain High Says Defense Secretary

Johnson Says We Need Adequate
National Defense To Protect Against Attack

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—(INS)—Defense Secretary Johnson said Monday that U. S. defense costs must remain high because of the danger of attack by a dictator acting in self-centered frenzy.

Johnson, addressing the annual meeting of the New England Council, answered a letter from a Washington department store clerk who asked why she had to contribute $68 of her salary annually to defense costs.

He said that the cost is necessary because "first... we need adequate national defense, and second, because its cost in the United States comes high."

Disciplined Minds

The secretary declared, however, that he was sure that the "disciplined minds" of U. S. military leaders would work toward adequate defense at the lowest possible cost, and would accept cuts in projects deemed not absolutely necessary.

He compared world communism with nazism and fascism, and said that its dangers to the United States were the same as were the threats of Hitler and Mussolini 11 years ago. Johnson said:

"In the long run aggressive communism as practiced today must lose, because like nazism and fascism and all of its other tyrannical forbears it panders to bestiality and destroys human dignity, because it is economically unsound and spiritually bankrupt."

A doctor replaced his dog's shoulder with an all-steel element, and within a month, the dog was walking on all fours.

Executive Board Of Rose Avenue Makes New Plans

P.T.A. Float Trophy To Be Presented At Meeting November 22; Room Visitation

Mrs. Samuel Rashid, president, stated that room visitations would feature the meeting of the P.T.A. on Tuesday, November 22, at 7:45 p.m. At this meeting the trophy won by the P.T.A. units of the city for the float will be presented to the seven presidents. Orlando Lucidore was chairman of the float committee, and Edward DeCarbo will present the trophy.

On the evening of November 22 the school will be open at 7:30, with the hospitality committee and home room mothers greeting the parents and showing them to their children's home room. Teachers will discuss report cards and the parents will be able to ask questions of his child's work in the school. Parents will be able to meet and become acquainted with other parents in the room.

Mrs. Harry Davis, finance chairman, states that the auction was a great success and that plans are being made for a style show to be held in February. Social chairman Mrs. Thomas Boohar states that the social period for the coming meeting will be conducted by the first grade mothers and standing committee. Membership chairman Mrs. Horace T. Treasler said that 301 members are enrolled in the Rose Avenue unit, and that Miss Mildred Smith's class of second grade had a room representation of 100 per cent.

Miss Lucille Lutton will go to the English conference to be held in Buffalo, N. Y., November 24-26 instead of Mrs. Grace White, as Mrs. White has other commitments.

A new report card is suggested by the new Pennsylvania course of study for elementary grades. This report covers a child's progress very thoroughly. It was favorably received by the board as being one wholly explainable of the individual child's progress.

Miss Lutton gave a short review of the board's recent trip to the new and modern schools of the Youngstown district. She will also give this talk at the regular meeting next Tuesday.

The newly painted and decorated room at the Rose Avenue school will be open for the public to view. Parents are invited to attend this room visitation.

Mrs. Boohar later served delicious refreshments.

Highland P.T.A. Has Discussion On Report Cards

Fred McLure Speaks On Report Card Problem; Cite Need For City P.T.A. Council

President, James C. Cavill presided at the monthly meeting of the Highland P. T. A., with approximately 85 members in attendance.

During the course of the meeting it was decided that there was a need for a City P. T. A. Council. It was decided that the president shall appoint a committee from the Highland P. T. A., to meet with members of the other city P. T. A. groups to discuss this matter and to proceed to formulate such a council.

The meeting was then turned over to Myron Milbauer, study chairman, who in turn Fred Y. McLure, principal of Mahoning school. A panel discussion was held with parents representing each grade at Highland school. This panel was composed of Mrs. Jack French, Mrs. Louise McConnell, Mrs. George Weinschenk, Mrs. Pellet Seeger, and Mrs. Joseph Berg. The problem of revising a report card, and a reporting system for elementary grades was discussed. A lively audience participation was evidenced, showing the parents' and members' keen appreciation of the problem, and their interest in the subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills were chairmen of the ensuing social period. They were graciously assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Atkinson, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Scott Lowery, Mrs. Charles Bees, Mrs. Howard Nord, and Mrs. E. Marvin. These ladies are mothers of children of the first grade.

Modern baking powder first appeared in kitchens in 1859.
